BUREAU OF REFUGES, FREEDMEN, &C. Washington, October 4, 1865.

The officers of this bureau are regarded as guardians of the orphans and minors of freedmen within their respective districts. The principle to be adhered to with regard to paupers is that each county, parish, township or city shall take care and provide for its own poor. Such laws are made for the free people and are now in force on the statute books of the States embraced in the operations of this bureau, and will recognized rnd extended to the freed-en. The Assistant Commissioner will draw up specific instructions applicable to their respective States in accordance with of foregoing principles.

Yesterday Evening's Edition. NEW YORK, October 4.-The Times Washington special says that an errone-ous impression prevails as to the ef-fect of relieving General Bragg from further service on the Wirz military commis-sion. It is generally supposed that this order of the War Department raises a $100. The $1,0000 are the only ones now grave legal question as to the right of the commission to proceed with the trial of Wirz. The question, however, has long been well settled, and the withdrawal of
